Qualification Title	L1 Award in Fire Safety Awareness
Course Duration	½ day – a minimum of 4 hours.
Certificate Validity	No expiry
Max No of delegates	16
Description	You will no doubt be aware of the potentially devastating effects of fires in the workplace in terms of lives lost, injuries, damage to property and the environment, and to the business continuity. You may also be aware that it is believed that most fires are preventable. The importance of fire safety in the workplace is underpinned by health and safety legislation that places a duty on employers to establish policies and procedures and ensure their employees receive appropriate training. This course is designed for all employees as an introduction to fire awareness and is an excellent ingredient in the induction programme of new employees. It deals with how fires can occur and what to do in the event of a fire. The qualification also provides a foundation for those employees who want to develop their basic fire safety awareness in order to assist their employer by undertaking more specific fire safety roles in the workplace to manage fire risk (e.g. as Fire Wardens/Marshals/Stewards etc).
Who should attend?	Students must be a minimum of 14 years of age. Please be aware a student cannot assume responsibility in the workplace until they reach 16 years of age, and then it is the employer's responsibility to ensure that the student is suitable for that role.
Syllabus	A range of subjects are covered including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The common causes of fire. • The behaviour of fire. • Legislation (brief) and responsibilities. • Fire prevention. • What to do if a fire breaks out. • How to use the fire extinguishers. • Emergency evacuation procedures.
Assessment & Certification	A national level 1 qualification will be issued to the learner subject to successful completion of the test paper. The qualification does not expire.
Refresher Training Recommended	Refresher courses are strongly recommended.
